Who we are

RBC Corporate Employee & Executive Services (RBC cees) specialises in administering global employee benefit plans, including international pension plans, stock and share plans and also private equity funds and property funds. This is supported by a full range of international wealth management services for plan members.

RBC cees was formed in November 2005, following the acquisition of Abacus Financial Services Group, formerly the trust arm of Coopers & Lybrand, by RBC Wealth Management. Senior members of the RBC cees team have worked together since 1996.

Global reach. Solid foundations. Among the world's best.
We are part of RBC Wealth Management, itself a division of RBC. RBC is Canada's largest bank, so within the safest banking system globally, and consistently one of the top 15 largest banks in the world, as measured by market capitalisation.

RBC is consistently rated as strong and stable with a high quality balance sheet, proactive risk management and a strong liquidity position. We received the Globe Award in 2010 and were named as one of Canada's Greenest Companies in May 2010.

Flexible solutions. One standard.

With assets under management exceeding US$40 billion and over 220 employees, RBC cees manages in excess of 600 plans (approximately 40% of which are UK based and 60% global) for more than 450 corporate clients and more than 40 funds out of its Jersey, Guernsey, Edinburgh, London and Geneva offices. We are adept at dealing with all plan sizes, from a pension for a single senior executive, to a share plans with in excess of 50,000 participants spread across 100 countries.

From small, privately-owned companies to global corporations listed on some of the world's major exchanges, our clients demand a broad range of solutions. But in every case, our goal is the same: to exceed expectations.
